

Woodchuck Cider

GLUTEN FREE, NATURALLY.

We take Celiac Disease seriously, and since Woodchuck has always, and only, been made from apples (not wheat, barley or rye) none of our cider varieties have ever contained gluten. Further, we have all our ciders tested by an independent lab and we maintain a completely gluten free facility

Woodchuck Amber Cider

The original Woodchuck. People liked it so much we made four more styles. The Amber is sweet (but not too sweet) with a nice golden color and crisp finish

Woodchuck Granny Smith Cider

Made from only Granny Smith apples, this one's a lot more tart and quite a bit tangier than your average Woodchuck. If you're a green apple sort of person, this could be your Woodchuck

Woodchuck 802 Cider

A drier Woodchuck. Its made with caramelized sugar to tone down the sweetness a bit and give it its bronze color. In case you're wondering, 802 is our area code up here in Vermont. So if you're planning on calling us up to say, "Dude, that 802 stuff like rocks!" just add 388-0700 to the name of your cider

Woodchuck Crisp Cider

A session cider that's cool, refreshing and crafted to be delicate in body and perfected with a delicious crisp apple taste

Woodchuck Pear Cider

To understand what Woodchuck Pear tastes like, take a deep breath, close your eyes and imagine yourself floating down a cool crisp mountain stream in the middle of July. Ok, got it? Now put an entire pear in your mouth

Woodchuck Raspberry Cider

It's a small batch of Woodchuck goodness with a little extra zip as it takes everything great about hard cider and kicks it up a notch with a sweet, refreshing, raspberry finish

Woodchuck Spring Cider

Warm days and cold nights will make the sap flow in the woods, but keeping the cider flowing in your fridge is up to you. Start with our spring cider - the taste and aroma of fresh maple syrup and brown sugar will make you think you're sitting in a warm sugarhouse in the Vermont countryside

Woodchuck Summer Cider

The sounds of the lapping lake-shores, the mountain views, and memories of fresh picked blueberries, now in a convenient six-pack. Exhibiting a slight tartness, this cider begins with a full, robust flavor followed by a rich summertime taste

Woodchuck Fall Cider

There are few things as spectacular as fall in the Green Mountains that surround our cidery. When you add cinnamon, nutmeg, and a hint of American white oak, you either have yourself some mighty fine cider or your standard Vermont tourism cliché

Woodchuck Winter Cider

Somewhere between a delicate snowflake drifting down to your tongue and a hard-packed snowball to the teeth, the power of this winter Cider is a balanced culmination of Premium French and Traditional American Oak, giving the cider great complexity and broad characteristics that neither style could produce on its own

Woodchuck Belgian White Cider Private Reserve

A handcrafted treasure, the ultra-limited edition Private Reserve Belgian White, is crafted with a classic Belgian beer yeast. Cloudy, with a rich, golden hue, it presents a delicate aroma and taste, with coriander and orange notes. It pairs excellently with seafood fare, mixed greens or sharp cheeses.

Woodchuck Barrel Aged Cider Private Reserve

This ultra-limited cider manages to combine the sweet and crisp taste of apple cider with smoky and dry flavors of Kentucky Bourbon. Woodchuck Cider is awesome, Kentucky Bourbon is awesome

Woodchuck Pumpkin Cider Private Reserve

Every once in a while you know you stumble upon something glorious. That something just so happens to be our Private Reserve Pumpkin. We have combined our signature taste with a refreshing pumpkin finish. Limited to just two and half hours on the production line this is a true connoisseur's cider

Woodchuck Farmhouse Cider

The attention to detail coupled with fresh Vermont apples and premium Belgian beer yeast give Original '91 a unique local flavor with a natural cloudiness and pleasing feel on the palate in every expertly crafted small batch

Farmhouse Select Hard Cider is a throwback to our early days. Sure, we've outgrown that little garage, but the handcrafted Woodchuck quality remains the same in every artisanal batch
